OBJECTIVES

[1] To study the consequences of failure of corporate governance, professionalism in management in coop banking sector.

[2] The need and measures for strengthening it for improvement of the sector.

HYPOTHESIS

[1] H1 There is no significant difference between working of banks in Public, Pvt, Coop sector with, regard to governance and professionalism in management.

H2 There is significant difference between working of banks in Public, Pvt, coop sector with regard to governance and professionalism in management.

[2] H1 There is no significant difference between level of hierarchy structure of management

H2 Level of hierarchy structure of management is different in above sector.

[3] H1 There is no similarity in protection of interest of depositors, customers and stakeholders

H2 Protection of interest of depositors, customers and stakeholders is common in banking industry.

[4] H1 There is no significant difference between customer level and infrastructure

H2 Customer satisfaction level and infrastructure are different of each other.

The above hypothesis shall be supplemented with additional sub hypothesis on the basis of trend and progress analysis reports published by RBI on yearly basis and by state Registrars.
We believe that Myanmar’s banking sector has a bright future and we foresee exponential growth for the industry, slated to multiply its current asset base by a factor of eight and create over 120,000 jobs by 2025. This study discusses and substantiates: 1. The current situation and challenges for the banking sector. 2. The short- and medium-term actions necessary to enable banking sector transformation. 3. The positive outlook for the banking sector through 2025. 4 Myanmar banking sector 2025. 1. Current situation and challenges for the banking sector.

1. Current situation and challenges for the banking sector.

- Innwa Bank
- Co-operative Bank
- Asia Green
- Development Bank
- Confronting challenges of co-operative banking sector by strengthening through good governance, management.  